PHILADELPHIA –Tri-State Jazz Society presents the Bria Skonberg Quintet at Haddonfield United Methodist Church, 29 Warwick Road, Haddonfield, NJ on Sunday, February 21, 2016, at 2:00 p.m. The quintet, a unique group of musicians from the US and Canada, assembled and led by trumpeter and vocalist Skonberg, ranges stylistically from New Orleans ensemble jazz to the classic American songbook inspired by icons such as Louis Armstrong, Sidney Bechet, Anita O'Day, and Roy Eldridge.

Thanks to the generous sponsorship of the Camden County Cultural and Heritage Commission, the Bria Skonberg Quintet concert is free and open to the public. This will be the only free TSJS concert this year. There will be no reservations.

The Haddonfield United Methodist Church is about 15 minutes from central Philadelphia via the Ben Franklin Bridge and parking is free. PATCO is nearby. For information see www.tristatejazz.org or call (856) 720-0232.

About Tri-State Jazz Society

Tri-State Jazz Society, formed in 1988, is dedicated to the preservation and live performance of early jazz, including traditional New Orleans, Dixieland, swing, ragtime, stride piano and boogie-woogie. The society's concerts feature leading professional small bands and soloists. All events are open to the public and anyone who enjoys traditional jazz is invited to join. Monthly concerts are presented in Wallingford, PA and Haddonfield, NJ to serve the entire Delaware Valley. Tri-State Jazz Society is a non-profit educational corporation supported by its members.
