PHILADELPHIA – Tri-State Jazz Society presents Jeff & Anne Barnhart's Ivory & Gold® at Haddonfield United Methodist Church, 29 Warwick Road, Haddonfield, NJ, on Sunday, April 17, at 2:00 p.m. Ivory&Gold® is a world-renowned husband and wife duo consisting of Anne on flute and vocals and Jeff on piano and vocals. The Connecticut-based couple formed Ivory&Gold® in 2001 and since then they have been performing swing, ragtime, and Great American Songbook offerings from coast to coast in the U.S. and abroad. During the group's concerts, Anne challenges Jeff to new musical and comedic heights as they explore America's timeless hits throughout the ages.

Half-price admission of $10, payable at the door, is available for first-time attendees and members; general admission is $20; full-time students with IDs and children are free. There are no advance sales or reservations. The church is about 15 minutes from central Philadelphia via the Ben Franklin Bridge and parking is free. PATCO is nearby. For information see www.tristatejazz.org or call (856) 720-0232.

About Tri-State Jazz Society

Tri-State Jazz Society, formed in 1988, is dedicated to the preservation and live performance of early jazz, including traditional New Orleans, Dixieland, swing, ragtime, stride piano and boogie-woogie. The society's concerts feature leading professional small bands and soloists. All events are open to the public and anyone who enjoys traditional jazz is invited to join. Monthly concerts are presented in Wallingford, PA and Haddonfield, NJ to serve the entire Delaware Valley. Tri-State Jazz Society is a non-profit educational corporation supported by its members.
