PHILADELPHIA – World-class stride pianist Neville Dickie, on an encore tour from England, will join the Delaware Valley's Midiri Brothers for a traditional jazz, stride and swing concert at Haddonfield United Methodist Church, 29 Warwick Road, Haddonfield, NJ on Sunday, June 5th, at 2:00 p.m. A native of England's County Durham and a regular performer on BBC Radio, Neville Dickie is among the most accomplished stride and boogie-woogie pianists on either side of the Atlantic. Local jazz favorites, the Midiri Brothers, will join Dickie on stage adding the sounds of clarinet, saxophones, drums, vibraphone, and trombone to the performance. Half-price admission of $10, payable at the door, is available for first-time attendees and members; general admission is $20; full-time students with IDs and children are free. There are no advance sales or reservations. The church is about 15 minutes from central Philadelphia via the Ben Franklin Bridge and parking is free. PATCO is nearby. For information see www.tristatejazz.org or call (856) 720-0232.

About Tri-State Jazz Society

Tri-State Jazz Society, formed in 1988, is dedicated to the preservation and live performance of early jazz, including traditional New Orleans, Dixieland, swing, ragtime, stride piano and boogie-woogie. The society's concerts feature leading professional small bands and soloists. All events are open to the public and anyone who enjoys traditional jazz is invited to join. Monthly concerts are presented in Wallingford, PA and Haddonfield, NJ to serve the entire Delaware Valley. Tri-State Jazz Society is a non-profit educational corporation supported by its members.
