PHILADELPHIA – Dan Levinson and his Tiger Tulip Jazz Band will perform traditional jazz at Tri-State Jazz Society's concert at Haddonfield United Methodist Church, 29 Warwick Road, Haddonfield, NJ on Sunday, September 18th, at 2:00 p.m. The septet, led by Levinson, includes prolific musicians and the elegant vocals of Molly Ryan. Termed the "in-demand reed man" by Mississippi Rag, Dan is a member of Vince Giordano's Nighthawks, has appeared at Carnegie Hall, on Late Night with Conan O'Brien, played with Leon Redbone, and includes Mel Tormé, Wynton Marsalis and Dick Hyman on his roster of musical associates.

Half-price admission of $10, payable at the door, is available for first-time attendees and members; general admission is $20; full-time students with IDs and children are free. There are no advance sales or reservations. The church is about 15 minutes from central Philadelphia via the Ben Franklin Bridge and parking is free. PATCO is nearby. For information see www.tristatejazz.org or call (856) 720-0232.

About Tri-State Jazz Society

Tri-State Jazz Society, formed in 1988, is dedicated to the preservation and live performance of early jazz, including traditional New Orleans, Dixieland, swing, ragtime, stride piano and boogie-woogie. The society's concerts feature leading professional small bands and soloists. All events are open to the public and anyone who enjoys traditional jazz is invited to join. Monthly concerts are presented in Wallingford, PA and Haddonfield, NJ to serve the entire Delaware Valley. Tri-State Jazz Society is a non-profit educational corporation supported by its members.
