PHILADELPHIA – The Midiri Brothers Sextet will entertain audiences with an energetic set of jazz, big band and swing music selections at Haddonfield United Methodist Church, 29 Warwick Road, Haddonfield, NJ on Sunday, November 13th, at 2:00 p.m. Co-led by Joe Midiri on reeds and twin brother Paul on vibraphone, the experienced sextet expresses themselves artistically with their instruments, making them one of the country's top swing-era bands.

Half-price admission of $10, payable at the door, is available for first-time attendees and members; general admission is $20; full-time students with IDs and children are free. There are no advance sales or reservations. The church is about 15 minutes from central Philadelphia via the Ben Franklin Bridge and parking is free. PATCO is nearby. For information see www.tristatejazz.org or call (856) 720-0232.

About Tri-State Jazz Society

Tri-State Jazz Society, formed in 1988, is dedicated to the preservation and live performance of early jazz, including traditional New Orleans, Dixieland, swing, ragtime, stride piano and boogie-woogie. The society's concerts feature leading professional small bands and soloists. All events are open to the public and anyone who enjoys traditional jazz is invited to join. Monthly concerts are presented in Wallingford, PA and Haddonfield, NJ to serve the entire Delaware Valley. Tri-State Jazz Society is a non-profit educational corporation supported by its members.
