PHILADELPHIA – Vintage guitarist, vocalist and storyteller, Marty Grosz, returns to the Tri-State Jazz Society with his Hot Winds, which include two of New York's top traditional jazz players: Randy Reinhart, cornet and trombone, and Dan Block, reeds, plus Philadelphia's Joe Plowman on bass, for a performance at Haddonfield United Methodist Church, 29 Warwick Road, Haddonfield, NJ on Sunday, February 12, 2017, at 2:00 p.m. Individually, the band members have played with Joe Pass, Herb Ellis, Charlie Byrd, Vic Dickenson, and ex-Modern Jazz Quartet drummer Connie Kay, worked on the Vince Giordano's Nighthawks' Grammy-winning soundtrack to the Martin Scorsese-produced HBO series Boardwalk Empire, and opened for acts such as Paul Simon and Joan Osborne. Marty has made dozens of recordings over the years. His most recent CD is "Diga Diga Doo: Hot Music from Chicago".

Half-price admission of $10, payable at the door, is available for first-time attendees and members; general admission is $20; full-time students with IDs and children are free. There are no advance sales or reservations. The church is about 15 minutes from central Philadelphia via the Ben Franklin Bridge and parking is free. PATCO is nearby. For information see www.tristatejazz.org or call (856) 720-0232.

About Tri-State Jazz Society

Tri-State Jazz Society, formed in 1988, is dedicated to the preservation and live performance of early jazz, including traditional New Orleans, Dixieland, swing, ragtime, stride piano and boogie-woogie. The society's concerts feature leading professional small bands and soloists. All events are open to the public and anyone who enjoys traditional jazz is invited to join. Monthly concerts are presented in Wallingford, PA and Haddonfield, NJ to serve the entire Delaware Valley. Tri-State Jazz Society is a non-profit educational corporation supported by its members.
