PHILADELPHIA – Jerry Rife's Rhythm Kings play Tri-State Jazz Society's next concert at Community Arts Center, 414 Plush Mill Road, Wallingford, PA, on Sunday, April 30th, at 2:00 p.m. Band members Dr. Jerry Rife, Danny Tobias, Pete Reichlin, Pat Mercuri, Gary Cattley, and Lenny Pucciatti are committed to a hot-jazz style of performance that is associated with post-World War II "revival Dixieland." In addition to playing as the Rhythm Kings, the individual band members have also performed with Vince Giordano's Nighthawks and the Midiri Brothers and for Patti LuPone at Resorts International, The Joey Bishop Show, and The Al Hirt Show.

Half-price admission of $10, payable at the door, is available for first-time attendees and members; general admission is $20; full-time students with IDs and children are free. There are no advance sales or reservations. The Arts Center is less than a mile from the Media-Swarthmore exit of I-476 (the "Blue Route") and has free parking. For information see www.tristatejazz.org or call (856) 720-0232.

About Tri-State Jazz Society

Tri-State Jazz Society, formed in 1988, is dedicated to the preservation and live performance of early jazz, including traditional New Orleans, Dixieland, swing, ragtime, stride piano and boogie-woogie. The society's concerts feature leading professional small bands and soloists. All events are open to the public and anyone who enjoys traditional jazz is invited to join. Monthly concerts are presented in Wallingford, PA and Haddonfield, NJ to serve the entire Delaware Valley. Tri-State Jazz Society is a non-profit educational corporation supported by its members.
