PHILADELPHIA – The Tri-State Jazz All-Stars quintet, consisting of Dr. Bob Rawlins, Randy Reinhart, Franny Smith, Ed Wise, and Paul Midiri, performs tunes from traditional Dixieland through the swing era at Community Arts Center, 414 Plush Mill Road, Wallingford, PA, on Sunday, July 9th, at 2:00 p.m. While directing the quintet he has assembled, Bob will invite select surprise musicians, some of whom seldom have the opportunity to play together, to sit in with the core supergroup throughout the concert.

Half-price admission of $10, payable at the door, is available for first-time attendees and members; general admission is $20; full-time students with IDs and children are free. There are no advance sales or reservations. The Arts Center is less than a mile from the Media-Swarthmore exit of I-476 (the "Blue Route") and has free parking. For information see www.tristatejazz.org or call (856) 720-0232.

About Tri-State Jazz Society

Tri-State Jazz Society, formed in 1988, is dedicated to the preservation and live performance of early jazz, including traditional New Orleans, Dixieland, swing, ragtime, stride piano and boogie-woogie. The society's concerts feature leading professional small bands and soloists. All events are open to the public and anyone who enjoys traditional jazz is invited to join. Monthly concerts are presented in Wallingford, PA and Haddonfield, NJ to serve the entire Delaware Valley. Tri-State Jazz Society is a non-profit educational corporation supported by its members.
