PHILADELPHIA – “Ragtime Sue” Keller brings her high-spirited vocals and virtuosic pianism to Tri-State Jazz for the first time on Sunday, February 11th, at 2:00 p.m. at Haddonfield United Methodist Church, 29 Warwick Road, Haddonfield, NJ. A recipient of the 2010 Lifetime Achievement Award from the Scott Joplin International Ragtime Foundation, Keller has been a regular at trad and ragtime festivals, including annual appearances in Sacramento and the Scott Joplin Festival in the composer’s birthplace of Sedalia, MO. Half-price admission of $10, payable at the door, is available for first-time attendees and members; general admission is $20; full-time students with IDs and children are free. There are no advance sales or reservations. The church is about 15 minutes from central Philadelphia via the Ben Franklin Bridge and parking is free. PATCO is nearby. For information see www.tristatejazz.org or call (856) 720-0232.

About Tri-State Jazz Society

Tri-State Jazz Society, formed in 1988, is dedicated to the preservation and live performance of early jazz, including traditional New Orleans, Dixieland, swing, ragtime, stride piano and boogie-woogie. The society's concerts feature leading professional small bands and soloists. All events are open to the public and anyone who enjoys traditional jazz is invited to join. Monthly concerts are presented in Wallingford, PA and Haddonfield, NJ to serve the entire Delaware Valley. Tri-State Jazz Society is a non-profit educational corporation supported by its members.
