PHILADELPHIA – Cornetist and jazz educator Dave Robinson has performed at the White House, the Capitol, the Kennedy Center and the Smithsonian. He leads the Conservatory Classic Jazz Band at Tri-State Jazz Society's concert at Community Arts Center, 414 Plush Mill Road, Wallingford, PA, on Sunday, March 11th at 2:00 p.m. Consisting of some of the finest DC-based performers in the traditional jazz genre, the Conservatory Classic Jazz Band specializes in the New Orleans and Chicago styles plus small-group swing, and their performances feature the music of such legends as W. C. Handy, Duke Ellington, Louis Armstrong, Sidney Bechet, and Eddie Condon.

Half-price admission of $10, payable at the door, is available for first-time attendees and members; general admission is $20; full-time students with IDs and children are free. There are no advance sales or reservations. The Arts Center is less than a mile from the Media-Swarthmore exit of I-476 (the "Blue Route") and has free parking. For information see www.tristatejazz.org or call (856) 720-0232.

About Tri-State Jazz Society

Tri-State Jazz Society, formed in 1988, is dedicated to the preservation and live performance of early jazz, including traditional New Orleans, Dixieland, swing, ragtime, stride piano and boogie-woogie. The society's concerts feature leading professional small bands and soloists. All events are open to the public and anyone who enjoys traditional jazz is invited to join. Monthly concerts are presented in Wallingford, PA and Haddonfield, NJ to serve the entire Delaware Valley. Tri-State Jazz Society is a non-profit educational corporation supported by its members.
