PHILADELPHIA – Multi-award-winning singer and international 4-string jazz banjoist Cynthia Sayer returns to Tri-State Jazz Society for the first time since 2014 to lead her Joyride Band in a performance of swinging jazz at Haddonfield United Methodist Church, 29 Warwick Road, Haddonfield, NJ on Sunday, August 19th, at 2:00 p.m. An American Banjo Hall of Fame inductee and charter member of Woody Allen's New Orleans Jazz Band, Sayer has played with legendary jazz artists including Bucky Pizzarelli, Dick Hyman, and Les Paul, as well as leading jazz contemporaries including Scott Robinson, Bria Skonberg, Vince Giordano, and others. Joyride Band members have equally impressive credits most notably playing for former President Bill Clinton, Nelson Mandela, the 20th anniversary celebration of Pope St. John Paul II, playing on R&B/Soul artist John Legend's Grammy-winning second album, playing in Bruce Springsteen's Sessions Band (which won a Grammy for traditional folk music), and sharing the stage with Dave Brubeck, Slide Hampton, Milt Jackson and Rosemary Clooney.

Half-price admission of $10, payable at the door, is available for first-time attendees and members; general admission is $20; full-time students with IDs and children are free. There are no advance sales or reservations. The church is about 15 minutes from central Philadelphia via the Ben Franklin Bridge and parking is free. PATCO is nearby. For information see www.tristatejazz.org or call (856) 720-0232.

About Tri-State Jazz Society

Tri-State Jazz Society, formed in 1988, is dedicated to the preservation and live performance of early jazz, including traditional New Orleans, Dixieland, swing, ragtime, stride piano and boogie-woogie. The society's concerts feature leading professional small bands and soloists. All events are open to the public and anyone who enjoys traditional jazz is invited to join. Monthly concerts are presented in Wallingford, PA and Haddonfield, NJ to serve the entire Delaware Valley. Tri-State Jazz Society is a non-profit educational corporation supported by its members.
