PHILADELPHIA – The 13-piece Cornell University ensemble, The Original Cornell Syncopators (OCS), will perform both Hot and Sweet music of the Jazz Age from the 1910s-1930s at Community Arts Center, 414 Plush Mill Road, Wallingford, PA, on Sunday, November 18th, at 2:00 p.m. Pushing the art of jazz forward while drawing inspiration from the past, their repertoire includes music from the New Orleans Rhythm Kings, the Georgians, the Original Prague Syncopated Orchestra, King Oliver, and many more. This full-fledged dance orchestra will have concert-goers on their feet.

Half-price admission of $10, payable at the door, is available for first-time attendees and members; general admission is $20; full-time students with IDs and children are free. There are no advance sales or reservations. The Arts Center is less than a mile from the Media-Swarthmore exit of I-476 (the "Blue Route") and has free parking. For information see www.tristatejazz.org or call (856) 720-0232.

About Tri-State Jazz Society

Tri-State Jazz Society, formed in 1988, is dedicated to the preservation and live performance of early jazz, including traditional New Orleans, Dixieland, swing, ragtime, stride piano and boogie-woogie. The society's concerts feature leading professional small bands and soloists. All events are open to the public and anyone who enjoys traditional jazz is invited to join. Monthly concerts are presented in Wallingford, PA or Haddonfield, NJ to serve the entire Delaware Valley. Tri-State Jazz Society is a non-profit educational corporation supported by its members.
