PHILADELPHIA – Presented by Tri-State Jazz Society, the Barbone Street Jazz Band will perform an afternoon of hot Dixieland Jazz at Community Arts Center, 414 Plush Mill Road, Wallingford, PA, on Sunday, February 10th, at 2:00 p.m. Steve Barbone has been playing clarinet for nearly 70 years and has shared a stage with, among others, jazz legends Coleman Hawkins, Sidney Bechet and Thelonius Monk. With an appreciation for the musical styles he grew up and played as a young man, Barbone leads a roster of Philly's best and most experienced dixieland/swing players. Accompanying Barbone are bandmates who have performed with Bobby Rydell, Frankie Avalon and Louis Prima, toured with Barry Manilow and Fabian, performed internationally and play regularly in the pit orchestras at the Walnut Street and Prince Music Theaters. This event will immerse attendees in the best of traditional jazz.

Half-price admission of $10, payable at the door, is available for first-time attendees and members; general admission is $20; full-time students with IDs and children are free. There are no advance sales or reservations. The Arts Center is less than a mile from the Media-Swarthmore exit of I-476 (the "Blue Route") and has free parking. For information see www.tristatejazz.org or call (856) 720-0232.

About Tri-State Jazz Society

Tri-State Jazz Society, formed in 1988, is dedicated to the preservation and live performance of early jazz, including traditional New Orleans, Dixieland, swing, ragtime, stride piano and boogie-woogie. The society's concerts feature leading professional small bands and soloists. All events are open to the public and anyone who enjoys traditional jazz is invited to join. Monthly concerts are presented in Wallingford, PA and Haddonfield, NJ to serve the entire Delaware Valley. Tri-State Jazz Society is a non-profit educational corporation supported by its members.
