PHILADELPHIA – Identical twins and Juilliard graduates Peter and Will Anderson are known for their interpretations of standard jazz songs and inventive original compositions. The jazz saxophonists will co-lead a band that includes a Grammy award winner in a performance of music from the repertoires of Benny Goodman and Artie Shaw at Tri-State Jazz Society's concert at Haddonfield United Methodist Church, 29 Warwick Road, Haddonfield, NJ on Sunday, March 17th, at 2:00 p.m. Born and raised in Washington D.C., the Andersons have performed with the Jazz at Lincoln Center Orchestra, Village Vanguard Orchestra, Wycliff Gordon, Wynton Marsalis, and can be heard on the 2014 Grammy-winning soundtrack of HBO's Boardwalk Empire with Vince Giordano's Nighthawks.

Half-price admission of $10, payable at the door, is available for first-time attendees and members; general admission is $20; full-time students with IDs and children are free. There are no advance sales or reservations. The church is about 15 minutes from central Philadelphia via the Ben Franklin Bridge and parking is free. PATCO is nearby. For information see www.tristatejazz.org or call (856) 720-0232.

About Tri-State Jazz Society

Tri-State Jazz Society, formed in 1988, is dedicated to the preservation and live performance of early jazz, including traditional New Orleans, Dixieland, swing, ragtime, stride piano and boogie-woogie. The society's concerts feature leading professional small bands and soloists. All events are open to the public and anyone who enjoys traditional jazz is invited to join. Monthly concerts are presented in Wallingford, PA or Haddonfield, NJ to serve the entire Delaware Valley. Tri-State Jazz Society is a non-profit educational corporation supported by its members.
