PHILADELPHIA – Accomplished English stride and boogie-woogie pianist Neville Dickie and the Midiri Brothers present a traditional jazz, stride and swing program at Haddonfield United Methodist Church, 29 Warwick Road, Haddonfield, NJ on Sunday, May 19th, at 2:00 p.m. Committed to early jazz, the musicians continuously broaden its reach. For example, Dickie has produced scores of records and can be heard on BBC radio as well as on hundreds of jazz recordings including several recordings with French pianist Louis Mazetier. Joe and Paul Midiri have recorded with everything from trios to big bands featuring the arrangements of Benny Goodman, Artie Shaw and the Dorsey Brothers, as well as Paul's original arrangements and compositions.

Half-price admission of $10, payable at the door, is available for first-time attendees and members; general admission is $20; full-time students with IDs and children are free. There are no advance sales or reservations. The church is about 15 minutes from central Philadelphia via the Ben Franklin Bridge and parking is free. PATCO is nearby. For information see www.tristatejazz.org or call (856) 720-0232.

About Tri-State Jazz Society

Tri-State Jazz Society, formed in 1988, is dedicated to the preservation and live performance of early jazz, including traditional New Orleans, Dixieland, swing, ragtime, stride piano and boogie-woogie. The society's concerts feature leading professional small bands and soloists. All events are open to the public and anyone who enjoys traditional jazz is invited to join. Monthly concerts are presented in Wallingford, PA or Haddonfield, NJ to serve the entire Delaware Valley. Tri-State Jazz Society is a non-profit educational corporation supported by its members.
