PHILADELPHIA – Perennial Tri-State Jazz Society favorite Ben Mauger brings his Vintage Jazz Band for a raucous afternoon of traditional jazz, Dixieland favorites plus a selection of Gatsby-era dance numbers to Community Arts Center, 414 Plush Mill Road, Wallingford, PA, on Sunday, June 2nd, at 2:00 p.m. The musical achievements of the band personnel have contributed to their becoming mainstays at prestige jazz venues and festivals up and down the East Coast. They are proud to bring their renditions of up-tempo traditional jazz classics to modern audiences.

Half-price admission of $10, payable at the door, is available for first-time attendees and members; general admission is $20; full-time students with IDs and children are free. There are no advance sales or reservations. The Arts Center is less than a mile from the Media-Swarthmore exit of I-476 (the "Blue Route") and has free parking. For information see www.tristatejazz.org or call (856) 720-0232.

About Tri-State Jazz Society

Tri-State Jazz Society, formed in 1988, is dedicated to the preservation and live performance of early jazz, including traditional New Orleans, Dixieland, swing, ragtime, stride piano and boogie-woogie. The society's concerts feature leading professional small bands and soloists. All events are open to the public and anyone who enjoys traditional jazz is invited to join. Monthly concerts are presented in Wallingford, PA and Haddonfield, NJ to serve the entire Delaware Valley. Tri-State Jazz Society is a non-profit educational corporation supported by its members.
