PHILADELPHIA – Tri-State Jazz Society veterans Danny Tobias, Dr. Bob Rawlins, Pat Mercuri, Dr. Gary Cattley and Paul Midiri make up the core quintet of the Tri-State Jazz All-Stars who will be performing their annual jam at Haddonfield United Methodist Church, 29 Warwick Road, Haddonfield, NJ on Sunday, July 14th, at 2:00 p.m. The versatile musicians, led by Danny Tobias, who will call tunes from the traditional Dixieland through swing eras, will express themselves in the music to deliver inspired performances. Special invited musicians, some of whom seldom play together, will sit in with the core ensemble as the concert progresses.

Member admission is $10, general admission is $20. Introductory offer - start a new, first-time TSJS annual membership ($20) at the door and receive free admission to this concert. Full-time students with IDs and children accompanied by a paying adult are free. There are no advance sales or reservations. The church is about 15 minutes from central Philadelphia via the Ben Franklin Bridge and parking is free. PATCO is nearby. For information see www.tristatejazz.org or call (856) 720-0232.

About Tri-State Jazz Society

Tri-State Jazz Society, formed in 1988, is dedicated to the preservation and live performance of early jazz, including traditional New Orleans, Dixieland, swing, ragtime, stride piano and boogie-woogie. The society's concerts feature leading professional small bands and soloists. All events are open to the public and anyone who enjoys traditional jazz is invited to join. Monthly concerts are presented in Wallingford, PA or Haddonfield, NJ to serve the entire Delaware Valley. Tri-State Jazz Society is a non-profit educational corporation supported by its members.
