PHILADELPHIA – Adam Swanson, one of the world's foremost performers of vintage American popular music, including ragtime, early jazz, the Great American Songbook, and more, returns to Tri-State Jazz on Sunday, March 15th, at 2:00 p.m. at Community Arts Center, 414 Plush Mill Road, Wallingford, PA.

Adam has been a featured performer and lecturer at ragtime and jazz festivals across the United States, and he is the only four-time winner of the World Championship Old-Time Piano Playing Contest. He made his New York debut in Carnegie Hall at the age of nineteen, and has performed at the Cinecon Classic Film Festival in Hollywood and the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C., as well as in Hungary and Switzerland.

Adam has recorded albums with pianist Frederick Hodges, former rock star Ian Whitcomb, and legendary 1950s recording artist Johnny Maddox, one of his greatest influences.

Member admission is $10, general admission is $20. Introductory offer - start a new, first-time TSJS annual membership ($20) at the door and receive free admission to this concert. Full-time students with ID and children accompanied by a paying adult are free. There are no advance sales or reservations. Dancing is welcome at all performances. The Arts Center is less than a mile from the Media-Swarthmore exit of I-476 (the "Blue Route") and has free parking. For information see www.tristatejazz.org or call (856) 720-0232.

About Tri-State Jazz Society

Tri-State Jazz Society, formed in 1988, is dedicated to the preservation and live performance of early jazz, including traditional New Orleans, swing, ragtime, stride piano and boogie-woogie. The society's concerts feature leading professional small bands and soloists. All events are open to the public and anyone who enjoys traditional jazz is invited to join. A concert is usually presented monthly, alternating between Wallingford, PA and Haddonfield, NJ, to serve the entire Delaware Valley. Tri-State Jazz Society is a non-profit educational corporation supported by its members.
